

30th Annual Peace Concert

Blues for Peace

August 15th, 2010 – Gas Works Park 11am-6pm

Peace Code Records of Seattle has taken a lead in the community for the last 5 years by producing Peace Concerts in conjunction with Don Glenn's summer park concert series and the Seattle Parks & Recreation Department. All the Artists and production staff donate their time and money to put on this great event. This FREE CONCERT and Local Merchant's Fair includes stellar local and international diverse talents and appeals to all ages; while providing a point of outreach for all citizens to contribute to the Northwest Harvest Food Bank.

This year we welcome the Washington Blues Society as active participants and sponsors of the August 15th 2010 Peace Concert, where they will gather for their WBS Annual Member Picnic. They are sponsoring the new 'Back Porch Unplugged' Stage. As a compliment to the Main Peace Concert Stage, this second stage will allow us to present continuous entertainment throughout the day. Our theme this year 'Blues for Peace'... This annual gathering has featured Peace Code Records Artists from as far away as Australia Oregon California and Boston.

Gas Works Parks scenic panoramic views, gentle rolling hills and historical backdrop make a great setting for a beautiful sun-filled day full of music and good peaceful energy. The expected attendance is minimum 1000 "Peacekeepers". So patrons can peruse the local vendor booths, fly a kite on the hill or have a picnic while you listen to some great music with friends and family! Bike the Burke-Gilman trail that runs right through the park with Seattle most popular cycle groups! Making a Peace Concert at Gasworks Park the perfect "end-up" for all of Seattle on a this Sunday.
